

Business Standard

Elliott Davis inks pact with Gurgaon firm to help businesses

Press Trust of India | New Delhi February 02, 2014 Last Updated at 11:25 IST

Elliott Davis PLLC has entered into an agreement with domestic accounting firm Ashok Maheshwary & Associates to develop, support and facilitate bilateral business opportunities between India and the US.

Teams from both sides will work together to guide clients through a wide range of complex international business, tax and regulatory matters, said Ashok Maheshwari, Founding Partner of Ashok Maheshwary & Associates.

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the CPA (Certified Public Accountants) firm Elliott Davis PLLC and Ashok Maheshwary & Associates will facilitate Indian entities entering the US market as well as US businesses establishing operations in India, he said.

"The focus of this arrangement is to develop, support and facilitate US-India bilateral business opportunities that bring both outbound investment to the US and inbound investment to India," he said.

Thiru Govender, International Practice Shareholder at Elliott Davis said the collaboration provides a gateway to assist and attract Indian capital investment to the US.

"Reciprocally, the relationship enhances our ability to guide US companies considering global expansion into the Indian market of opportunity," he added.

Ashok Maheshwary & Associates is an international accounting firm based in Gurgaon. Elliott Davis is one of the largest accounting, tax and consulting services firms in the US.